| As well as the £2000 student travel allowance, students also have access to an additional £250 for skills training. If your trip involves some sort of training or skills development (e.g. you will be presenting) then you could be eligible to charge all or part of the trip to your skill straining fund. Please say here if you would like to do this and why: |                                                 |
