

OXFORD MAP THE SYSTEM
INFO SESSION
20 January 2025
18:30-20:00
Saïd Business School

Join us for an info session about Map the System, a Learning Programme and Global Competition for students interested in applying systems thinking to complex social and environmental problems. Oxford students can compete in the local Oxford MTS Competition in April 2025 to win cash prizes of £3,000, £2,000 & £1,000 for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place.

The winner of the Oxford MTS Competition will compete against top student teams from around the world at the Map the System Global Final Competition being held 3-6 July 2025 in Oxford at Saïd Business School.
